

Oral Decisions

5 – 6 August, 2021 | Sydney

About the program

This one and one-half day, non-residential program aims to give participants a toolkit for delivering oral decisions with confidence. Participants have an opportunity to practice the delivery of oral decisions to, and receive individual feedback from, seasoned practitioners, in a safe and supportive environment.

Theory sessions include discussion on the elements of a good decision; effective listening and note-taking; and creating a judicial presence in the court room.

Who should attend?

This program is open to judges and magistrates. A limited number of places are available to tribunal members – please contact the College for more information njca@anu.edu.au.

Cost

The program fee of $1800 (GST inclusive) includes:

- Course materials and content
- Afternoon tea on Thursday and morning/afternoon teas and lunch on Friday.

The program fee DOES NOT include accommodation and/or travel. Participants are asked to make their own arrangements.

Registration

Register online via www.njca.com.au.

Program Committee / Presenters

Justice James Stevenson, Supreme Court of New South Wales (Chair)
Judge Susanne Cole, Deputy President NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal
Ms Lucy Cornell, The Voice Advisory
Judge Warwick Hunt, District Court of New South Wales
His Honour Dr John Lowndes, former Chief Judge, Local Court of the Northern Territory
Justice Glenn Martin, Supreme Court of Queensland
Magistrate Roslyn Porter, Magistrates Court of Victoria