

Judicial Officers with Leadership Responsibilities

31 March – 1 April 2022

Adelaide, South Australia

About the program

The National Judicial College of Australia is pleased to announce the return of the popular two-day program, Judicial Officers with Leadership Responsibilities. This thought-provoking course is focused on practical outcomes and designed especially for court leaders facing complex environments, contemporary changes and pressures of external scrutiny.

Participants will engage with leadership theory, case studies, role play and group discussions, all led by the nation's judicial and managerial experts, to ensure that they are well-equipped to build a productive workplace and manage the reputation of the court.

Who should attend?

Heads of specialist courts and major tribunals, and judicial officers in key leadership positions.

Cost

The program fee of $3,300 provides for course materials and catering each day.

Accommodation

There are a limited number of rooms reserved at the venue. Details on how to reserve these will be forwarded upon registration. Rooms must be booked by 23 January 2022 to be guaranteed.

Program Planning Committee

Justice Andrew Bell (Chair), Supreme Court of New South Wales

Justice Craig Colvin, Federal Court of Australia
Dr Geoff Garrett AO, Leadership Consultant
Justice Janine Pritchard, State and Administrative Tribunal of WA
Ms Kate Latimer, CEO, NJCA

Judge Penny Eldridge, District Court of South Australia
Chief Magistrate Catherine Geason, Magistrates Court of TAS
Justice Peter Riordan, Supreme Court of Victoria
Dr Adele Chynoweth, Program Manager, NJCA

For more information please email njca@anu.edu.au or call Adele Chynoweth on 02 6125 1443